(a) Her mother left Śhakuntalā after her birth. She was deserted in a dense forest. The great sage, Kanva saw her there. Out of affection he took her to his hermitage. There were two other hermit-girls in the same hermitage.

(b) Swami Vivekananda was a true disciple of his Preceptor Rama-Krishnandeva. He realized that ultimate truth is one. So, there is no difference among us. He carried this message from east to west. He said that God exists within us in various forms. He announced that he alone serves God who loves all. This is the highest lesson of religion.
